

Date: Sat, 19 Sep 2009 05:39:39 -0700 (PDT)
From: Richard Dorman <pastor5757@yahoo.com>
To: MDavis02@albemarle.org
Cc: eseaman@albemarle.org, liz.palka@newsplex.com,
editor@readthehook.com

Good Morning,

I was having a discussion in a local store with some citizens of the county and would like an answer from our commonwealth attorney. What is the legal statute for selling (or in this case distributing for free) pornographic material to minors? I thought a store in this county and state that sold Playboy could only do so to legal adults. So why is the Commonwealth Attorney's office silent on The Hook distributing an issue that has nude photos from Playboy? Does a complaint have to be formally filed for you to act? If so please let me know and I will fill the proper paper work.

This is crazy that a free paper that is in local stores for anyone to pick up should be given a free pass because of a little fear of the 1st Amendment, an issue that has already been settled by the Supreme Court, I believe, which is why you must be 18 to buy Playboy. This is not a conservative or liberal issue or a prude or no prude issue, it is a legal one, which is why you exist.

A response would be nice.

Thank you

Sincerely,

Richard L Dorman - A local pastor